CRONIN'S ALLEGED MURDERER. Application of the Illinois Authorities for the Extradition of Martin Burke.

George A. H. Baker, of the state attorney's office of Illinois, arrived in this city last night, bearing the application of the Illinois authorities for the extradition of Martin Burke, who is Thirty Houses Burned at Johnsheld under arrest at Winnepeg for the murder of Dr. Cronin. The papers were presented to the Department of State immediately upon the beginning of business this morning. They have already been examined in a preliminary way, and have been found to be in regular legal form. There will be no difficulty in the issuance of the extradition warrant and no delay except that caused by the absence for the day of the President, whose signature is required to the warrant. If he returns to-night this will be obtained, and Mr. Baker will start back for Chicago to-morrow, and will proceed thence to Winnipeg. He says that the State department officials have smoothed his way and done everything to facilitate the transac-tion of his business. Mr. Baker seemed to be rather mistrustful of legal delays in the Canadian courts, where, he believes, the parties are inclined to go further than a mere inquiry into the legal form of the extradition warrant and its compliance with treaty stipulations, and to undertake to go into the merits of the case and the sufficiency of the proof of murder. CONSUL DOTY SEEKING HEALTH.

The Stolen Seaton Silverware. Saturday afternoon, in the Police Court, Ferdinand Lowenstein, the dealer in second-hand gold and silver, was placed on trial charged with receiving $120 worth of silverware alleged to have been stolen from the residence of Mr. Malcolm Seaton, of No. 1819 F street northcurred at his sister's house. He said that there was a quantity of silverware in the storeroom property.

A young man, who gave his name as Frank Brainard, testified that he "got" the silverware from No. 1738 I street, where it was in a wooden box, and he took it to Lowenstein's place to sell. He sold the large vase to Lowenstein for $9.60. Stein for $9.60.

When questioned by the court the witness,

CHICAGO, June 24.—Superintendent Hubbard yesterday received a photograph of Martin Burke from Winnipeg. It represents a rather vicious and dangerous person. The lines of the face are strong and harsh. There was a week's growth of beard when the photograph was taken. "That's the man," said the chief,

However, we have Burke now and there will be time enough to inquire into his complicity in | will be commenced at once. now. THE DATE OF TRIAL UNCERTAIN.

It is altogether indefinite when the suspected murderers of Dr. Cronin will be brought to trial, but to-day's proceedings in Judge Shephard's court would indicate that the prosecution desires a few weeks' investigation yet before arraigning the suspects before the criminal tribunal. Coughlin, O'Sullivan, and Woodruff were all marched into Judge Shephard's court this morning and asked if they were ready for trial and if they desired their case set for any in an immediate trial. I am now, your honor."

"What have you to say Mr. O'Sullivan?" said the judge.

Schuettler and Frank Scanlon arrived here at 8:15 a. in the mass of debris. m. from Chicago, and Mr. Scanlon at once decided that the suspect arrested at this place was not Cooney. He admitted, however, that the resemblance was striking. The man turns out to be Patrick Donahue, of Green Castle, Ind. He is an intelligent Irishman and a mem-ber of the Land League, but not of the Clanber of the Land League, but not of the Clauser and a strong admirer of Dr. Cronin, whom he claims to have met frequently. He has been set at to have met frequently. He has been set at the land to an acquaintance this Contrary to expectation the grand jury did not this morning resume consideration of the Cronin case. The story of G. E. Brooks, published last Saturday, has since been exploded and it was deemed useless to summon that individual before the jury.

The term of the special jury expires by limitation at the close of the week and its final report must necessarily be made at that time.

It was this morning announced that to-day and to-morrow would be devoted to the consideration of jail cases, and it is an open secret around the court-house on the charge of having murdered Dr. Cronin.

A BIG FIRE RAGING.

Johnstown Visited With a Disastrous Conflagration.

JOHNSTOWN, Pa., June 24.-Major Phillips. who is in charge of the work of removing the dam above the railroad bridge, began the use of dynamite for the purpose of scattering the debris at 8 o'clock this morning. The sleeping city was rudely awakened and somewhat frightened by the frequency of the shocks, and for once at least all hands, although not in the best humor over their early rising, were promptly on hand at the regular hour for beginning work. Major Phillips said this morning that he was seriously handicapped in performing his work since restricted to the use of only 25-pound cartridges. He promises, how-ever, to do something—he did not say what— before next Thursday that will OPEN THE EYES OF THE PEOPLE.

The Cambria City council held a meeting yesterday and discussed the question of building houses for the homeless. Nothing has yet been done for them by the state in the way of buildings. The burgess was instructed to address a etter to the state relief commission asking that $12,000 be appropriated for the purpose of erecting frame buildings. Lieuts. Reed and Patrick, of the U.S. regular army, began work to-day and erected the first permanent bridge across the Conemangh river at this place. The bridge will lead from the present general headquarters to the street lead-ing to the Pennsylvania railroad. TO CONSTRUCT TEMPORARY HOUSES.

Capt. D. H. Reed, of Pittsburg, arrived here yesterday, and at the request of the citizens of Cambria borough will superintend the construction of two hundred temporary houses. Capt. FRANCE AND RUSSIA. A Rumored Political and Military Arrangement Between Them.

LONDON, June 24.-Two eminent Russian generals left Paris last evening for St. Petersburg as quietly as they had come a week ago, and it turns out that they came intrusted with a most important diplomatic mission. These are Gen. Annekoff and Gen. Van Noffsky, the are Gen. Annekoff and Gen. Van Noffsky, the Russian war minister, and it is asserted that their visit to Paris was to ascertain on want terms a political and military cooperation with France could be arranged without the conclusion of a formal Franco-Russian alliance. It is understood that the visit was made at the suggestion of M. Spuller, the French minister of foreign affairs, and it is certain that M. Spuller and the two Russians had frequent interviews during the visit of the latter. The contingency of a Russo-Austrian war in which Germany might become involved was freely discussed, and according to the Parisian press the two generals left Paris entirely satisfied with the result of their mission. result of their mission.

THE ENTERTAINMENT OF THE SHAH. The estimate of £25.000 which Sir Jas. Fergusson, the under foreign secretary, will lay before the house to-day to provide for the entertainment of the shah will meet with bitter opposition. This time it is not alone the radicals, who always make an outcry against these expenditures, who will object. The treaty which the august visitor concluded with the czarduring his stay in St. Petersburg, is little by little coming to light, and it is already evident that this treaty in terms is a stroke at England. It provides that in case of war with England Russia may occupy Persian territory for effensive operations. Before these facts became known it was hoped fore these facts became known it was hoped that the shah's visit to London might be turned to account by the English ministers, but it is now evident that the wily czar has swept the board, and not a single diplomatic crumb of comfort is left for England to garner. Under these circumstances Englishmen are naturally asking themselves why spend £25,000 for the entertainment of this uncouth, ill-mannered harborica? barbarian?

NINETY-NINE YEARS.

John Shea Will Spend Them in the Penitentiary, if He Lives That Long.

Sr. Louis, Mo., June 24.—The murder case of John D. Shea terminated at 9 o'clock last night in a verdict of guilty, and he was sept tenced to ninety-nine years in the penitentiary. Shea killed Police Officer Doran in the streets eight years ago. Various features of criminal proceedings against him were insti-tuted, he fighting through the state courts and tuted, he fighting through the state courts and United States Supreme Court on legal technicalities. He finally escaped from jail, and was two years ago discovered in the Pennsylvania penitentiary at Pittsburg serving a term for robbery. He has fought his case hard since his return to St. Louis, and will now give it up, having escaped with his life after having twice been sentenced to hang.

CINCINNATI'S SUNDAY.

A Proposition to Impeach Mayor Mosby-A Big Fight On.

CINCINNATI, OHIO, June 24 .- The national turnerfest brought together in Cincinnati yesterday tens of thousands of Germans from all parts of the United States. It was a test day in the battle between the saloons and the law and order league. The saloons weeks, when a democratic police judge, a democratic prosecutor, a non-partisan police board and a republican chief of police have sucand a republican chief of police have succeeded in bringing the saloons to respect the law. Last Sunday nearly every saloon was closed. Yesterday the law and order people asked policemen to arrest saloonists who had their places open. The police refused, saying their chief had instructed them to keep their hands off. The chief said Mayor Mosby had given permission to the saloonists to discher given permission to the saloonists to disobey the law. The law and order league thereupon announced they would arrest the mayor to-day and impeach him. There is no doubt that a big fight is on.

Not Accident, but Murder. WHEELING, W. Va., June 24.-It has been discovered that young Harvey Duncan, who was drowned in the Ohio river near Belprie, Ohio, on Friday last, and whose death was supposed to have been accidental, was deliberposed to have been accidental, was deliberately murdered in daylight. Duncan, with three other young men and two women, had been living in a boat house by the river-side. On Friday a disturbance took place in the house, and a few minutes later three men were seen to come out holding Duncan between them. They put him in a small boat and rowed out into the stream. An old German, who lives near by, heard the lad plead for his life, but they deliberately threw him for his life, but they deliberately threw him into the river and prevented him from swim-ming out. He struggled for a few minutes and then sank. The West Virginia authorities are now investigating the matter.

Still Working for Bob Younger's Pardon STILLWATER, MINN., June 24.—Great pressure is being brought to bear upon the governor in behalf of a pardon for Bob Younger, one of the Missouri outlaws serving life sentences here for the murder of a bank officer in Northfield in 1876, and it is thought the pardon will be granted. The petition is based upon the fact that Bob cannot live long, his health being very bad. He has served over twelve years in very bad. He has served over twelve years in jail. It is also argued that the fact that he was but twenty-two years of age at the time of the crime entitles him to some consideration. Coleman Younger, the eldest of the brothers, has made a statement to the effect that neither Bob nor his brothers personally did the killing, but that the murderer was another member of the gang, who was himself killed by officers at the time the entire party were captured at

Fire in the Vanderbilt House. SYRACUSE, N. Y., June 24.-Fire seriously damaged the interior of the Vanderbilt house this morning at 2:30 o'clock. It started in the this morning at 2:30 o'clock. It started in the upper story and burned down to some extent, though it was largely confined to the third story and to the roof. Great damage was done to furniture, &c., by water. All the guests escaped in safety. The hotel stock is valued at $50,000 and is insured for $40,000. The loss is estimated at about $30,000. The building is fully insured.
